

CARE FOR CAREGIVERS IN TRAUMA CENTERS – PIONEER WORK OF JOHAN LANSEN

Conference in Berlin, Germany May 8, 2020

Conference Location:
Berliner Institut für Psychotherapie und Psychoanalyse (BIPP)
Pariser Straße 44, 3rd floor left
10707 Berlin-Wilmersdorf

- Conference Organizers:
- AMCHA
 - Zentrum ÜBERLEBEN
 - The conference language: English
 - Access to Conference location (red)
 - Subway Spichernstr. (blue)
 - Subway Uhlandstr. (green)

Morning session 10.00-13.00

- Welcome by Christian Pross, Zentrum ÜBERLEBEN and Lukas Welz, AMCHA Germany
- Ch. Gounod, Meditation on 1st Prelude by Johann Sebastian Bach: Jennifer Pross Flute, Julia Pross Piano
- Ton Haans, Amsterdam: Memories of my cooperation with Johan Lansen

11.00-11.15 Coffee break

- Sana Hamzeh, Restart Center for Rehabilitation of Victims of Violence and Torture, Tripoli & Beirut – Lebanon: Care for Caregivers: The overlooked key to success
- Elisabeth Fries, Refugio Stuttgart: Johan Lansen's contribution to the development of Refugio Stuttgart
- Christian Pross: Johan Lansen, mentor, teacher, supervisor and anchor in times of crisis

13.00-14.30 Lunch in nearby restaurant

Afternoon Session 14.30-18.00

- Natan Kellermann, AMCHA Israel: Past, present and future perspectives of Holocaust trauma transmission
- Anton Hafkenscheid, Sinai Centrum Amersfoort: Group psychotherapy with second generation victims of World War II: a pragmatic, interpersonal perspective.

16.00-16.15 Coffee break

- Nora Balke, Zentrum ÜBERLEBEN: Trauma specific supervision in intercultural settings according to Lansen/Haans
- Closing session: The legacy of Johan Lansen - Discussion